In-Home Cenacles of The Divine Mercy
are small Christian communities modeled after the early church when Christians were called "Followers of The Way." Cenacles incorporate the devotional aspects of The Divine Mercy (the Divine Mercy Image, Chaplet of The Divine Mercy, Divine Mercy Sunday, Novena of The Divine Mercy, Three O'clock Hour of Mercy) but go further to guide us in living The Divine Mercy Way of Life. Its members learn to adopt a Culture of Mercy. They seek to live: Jesus, I Trust in You - in all things. If you would like to host or join a cenacle, please complete this form and return to the St. Matthew Catholic Church Office attention of Ralph Sullivan, or forward by email to rscsm@aol.com

Jubilee Year of Mercy

Call to Be Witness

October 3, 2015

9am-to-3pm

St. Matthew Catholic Church

8015 Ballantyne Commons Parkway
Charlotte NC 28277 (704)543-7677

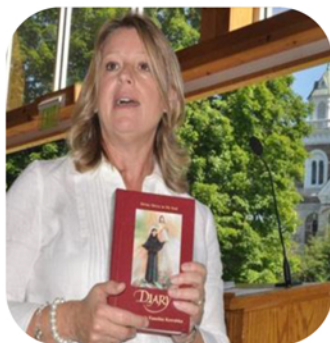

Rev. Monsignor John J. McSweeney, Pastor of St. Matthew Catholic Church, as an advocate of The Divine Mercy, encourages everyone to respond enthusiastically to the call of Pope Francis to participate fully in the Jubilee Year of Mercy. This worldwide call to unleash the power of mercy in every diocese, parish, ministry and home requires us to get prepared.

Deacon Gary Schrieber, the Spiritual Director of Cenacles of The Divine Mercy, is serving us as the MC of this event as well as offering a presentation on how deacons seek to live divine mercy as part of their call to a life of service. He will highlight how deacons practice mercy.

Since 2001, husband and wife team Joan and Dave Maroney have been telling the story of Divine Mercy. Their own conviction is unmistakable, and their devotion contagious. They have brought a multimedia presentation to over 100,000 people in parishes and schools across the country and beyond. They also have developed a wide array of products and services to help renew and inspire the entire community and to assist others in spreading the Divine Mercy message and devotion.

MOMM's products and services help us to: deepen appreciation for the Most Holy Eucharist; increase participation in the Sacrament of Penance; prompt involvement in works of mercy through deed, word and prayer and also provide materials for further education in the faith.
